Tell us about you

Tell us about yourself and your family background, mentioning significant events in your life, your interests, and how you spend your time. Please include anything else you believe we should know about you, your family members and family life. What do you consider to be your strengths and weaknesses?

Tell us about your education and work experience

What does work mean to you?

What knowledge and skills have you gained in your work that shaped your life?

Why would you like to join our Camphill community?

Have you any experience of community life? If not, what attracts you to community life?

How can you imagine contributing to life in the community?

What are your hopes and expectations of community living?

Describe briefly any knowledge you may have of the philosophy our community is built on and strives to live by.

The spiritual values of the community are expressed in the seasonal festivals of the Christian year. How do you imagine you might contribute to these festivals?

Please describe any previous experience you have had working with people who need support.

We aspire to live by the ideals of Rudolf Steiner's threefold social order. Therefore please let us know any financial commitments you may have, such as debts, lease purchases, mortgage, etc. Without this information we may not be able to meet your financial needs.

Do you have any dietary needs?

Have you been involved in any incident, or have any convictions or cautions (excluding youth cautions, reprimands or warnings) that are not 'protected' as defined by the Ministry of Justice? If not, please write 'None'.

The amendments to the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975 (2013 and 2020) provides that when applying for certain jobs and activities, certain convictions and cautions are considered 'protected'. This means that they do not need to be disclosed to employers, and if they are disclosed, employers cannot take them into account.

DBS Check

By law everyone living and working with vulnerable adults must have a current UK Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) certificate, also known as a 'police check'.

Non-UK citizens will have to apply for and send us a police check from their country of origin as part of the application process. On arrival in Botton a UK DBS check will be applied for on your behalf. In order for this to be done you will need to bring your passport with you (an identity card is not sufficient).

Do you have a current or previous police record?

Yes/No:

Referees

To support your application we will need two named referees. One must be in a professional position (not just the name of a school or organisation) and must be from your current or most recent employer, teacher, community or religious leader. The second referee can be your close friend but not a member of your own family. Both referees must have known you for at least two years.

We are obliged by UK law to send our reference forms directly to your two referees who should complete and return them to us as soon as possible to ensure that we can process your application quickly.
